

Julius Rudel papers

Collection, MP001401

About

Julius Rudel (1921-2014) was a renowned opera and orchestra conductor who graduated from the Mannes School of Music in 1943. He served as music director for several organizations, most notably as director and principal conductor for New York City Opera from 1957 to 1979. The collection includes annotated conducting scores and notes, clippings, programs and playbills, correspondence, biographical material, and photographs.
