

Margaret Mead Lecture (Tape 2 of 2)

Related Collection

Cultural Patterning of Human Development: Margaret Mead

Description

This audio recording is of the second part of the second lecture in a five lecture series given at The New School by anthropologist Margaret Mead on the cultural patterning of human development. Mead responds to questions from the audience written on cards, the topics of which include: cultural gender differences related to childbirth, postpartum care in the United States, the role of childless couples, the differences between psychology and anthropology, homosexuality, the importance of environmental factors in child development, instinctive behavior, nursing, and the ethics of cultural noninterference by anthropologists.

Date

October 17 1977

Related people

New School for Social Research \(New York, N.Y. : 1919-1997\)(producer)

Margaret Mead (speaker)

Work Type

1/4 inch audio tape

Inscription

Margaret Mead Lecture # 2 Tape # 2; 77/9-2 Margaret Mead: Cultural Patterning of Human Development Tech: 7 1/2 IPS full track mono Time: 40 min. (container)

Use Restrictions

Location

box mixed nav_7

Identifier

NS070212_000057