Inscription

Roy Little, Parsons School of Design student, poses with the three piece suit he designed which won him the Parsons-Stefan Award. In choosing the award winning suit, Mr. Stefan, famous designer shown standing, said, "It is very encouraging to feel that there is no hesitancy, no lack of imagination, no lack of originality in tomorrow's designers who are coming out of school TODAY!" The suit is a three piece wool with a grey and white plaid jacket, skin tight black wool skirt and grey jersey high neck blouse. (caption)
