Description

Ann Blevins discusses her career as a stylist and her collaborations with photographers. (The spelling of Blevins's name has been surmised based upon an internet search, but has not been confirmed.) The focus of Blevins's lecture is to provide photographers with insight into how stylists work and think. Blevins presents photographs and comments on them, relating behind-the-scenes stories about working with clients, location shoots, and the role of the stylist. Workshop participants ask questions throughout.
